

Project WILD

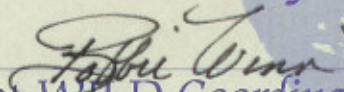

Certificate of Professional Development

presented to Laurie York

to acknowledge the dedication that characterizes your commitment to the process of education, and in recognition of your successful completion of a Project WILD/Aquatic WILD workshop presented this day, May 17, 2004

Project WILD Coordinator

Aquatic WILD Coordinator

Workshop Facilitator

Project WILD is a conservation and environmental education program sponsored in California by the state Department of Fish and Game. The WILD Guides are provided by the Environmental License Plate Fund and the Aquatic WILD Guides are funded by the Dingell-Johnson Sport Fish Restoration Program.